“Third Party Representative” means (1) any joint venture partner or consortium partner, any entity with which Teva has a partnership agreement, or any entity with which Teva shares equity in another entity; (2) any party to whom Teva sells or provides products and who, in turn, resells or provides such products to anyone other than an end user, including through a local licensing agreement; (3) any non-employee individual or entity paid by Teva that may reasonably be expected to deal with government officials, customers or potential customers, or political parties, on Teva’s behalf.

“Teva” means Teva Pharmaceutical Industries Ltd. or any affiliated company of Teva Pharmaceutical Industries Ltd., to whom, as the case may be, the Respondent:

- a) is applying to become a Third Party Representative; or
- b) already provides services.

2. Notice

Teva expects Third Party Representatives to abide by ethical standards similar to those of Teva and to comply with all applicable laws. The completion of the Questionnaire is required by Teva to enable it to evaluate the Respondent.

The purpose of this document is to explain how Teva will process the Respondent’s information collected and to gain the Respondent’s and Related Parties’ consent to such processing.

Teva will use information collected to evaluate the Respondent’s business practices and ensure compliance with Anti-Corruption Legislation and other applicable laws. This processing could include legal analysis of the information to determine whether a breach of relevant laws has occurred or might occur, as well as for the purpose of implementing appropriate measures to resolve any identified compliance issues. This information will not be used, transmitted or processed for any other purpose, except to confirm the accuracy of the Respondent’s responses. The use of the information provided may include conducting background checks on the Respondent and any Related Parties mentioned in the Questionnaire.

Teva UK Limited of Ridings Point, Whistler Drive, Castleford, West Yorkshire WF10 5HX, United Kingdom is a data controller in respect of Personal Data collected through the Questionnaire from Respondents located in the European Economic Area, Bosnia & Herzegovina, Kosovo, Macedonia, Serbia and Switzerland. For all other countries, Teva Pharmaceuticals USA, Inc. of 1090 Horsham Road, North Wales, PA 19454, USA is responsible for the processing of Personal Data. Personal Data may be transmitted to other Teva affiliates, Teva employees, external legal counsel, other external advisors and/or regulatory authorities located in countries outside the Respondent's and Related Parties' country of residence, business or incorporation. Such countries' laws protecting Personal Data might not be equivalent to those in the Respondent's and Related Parties' country of residence (in which case Teva UK Limited or Teva Pharmaceuticals USA, Inc. (as applicable) shall enact reasonable measures to ensure adequate processing of personal data). Teva will carry out the storage and retention of this information in accordance with Teva's policies and procedures and applicable laws and regulations.

For more information on how Securimate processes Personal Data, its privacy policy can be found at www.securimate.com/about-us/policy/privacy-policy/

4. Consent

By submitting the Questionnaire, the Respondent certifies, agrees, and acknowledges:

- a) The information provided in the Questionnaire or in subsequent follow-up enquiries includes Personal Data and may include Sensitive Personal Data (for the avoidance of doubt, further references in this document to Personal Data include all Sensitive Personal Data, where applicable), the collection, use and disclosure of which may be subject to data protection laws;
- b) All Personal Data provided will be collected lawfully and properly in accordance with applicable data protection laws;
- c) He/she is duly authorized to respond to the Questionnaire and requests on behalf of the Respondent and to agree to the conditions set out in this document on behalf of the Respondent;
- d) The Respondent is duly authorized on behalf of all Related Parties to which Personal Data relates to provide that Personal Data to Teva, and the Related Parties have, to the extent required by applicable laws, been informed and have consented to the collection, processing, transfer and use of their Personal Data as contemplated in this document;
- e) Where any Related Party informs the Respondent that he/she has revoked his/her consent for the processing of his/her Personal Data as contemplated in this document, the Respondent must immediately inform Teva of this fact;
- f) Teva may collect, process, store, use, disclose and transfer Personal Data provided to evaluate the Respondent's business practices and ensure compliance with all Anti-Corruption Legislation (including using external sources to review this Personal Data). This may include carrying out background checks on the Respondent and Related Parties, including, to the extent permitted under applicable law:
 - identification verification;
 - criminal records checks;
 - media record searches;
 - searches against international watch lists;
 - credit checks; and
 - reference checks.
- g) If a potential issue or query arises, Teva may require the Respondent to provide additional identification and other information or documents which it deems necessary;
- h) Personal Data will be transmitted to Teva affiliates, Teva employees, external legal counsel, service providers, and/or other external advisors for the purposes described in this document;

- i) Personal Data may be disclosed to regulatory authorities for purposes of complying with such authorities' formal or informal inquiries and requests for disclosure of information in the context of anti-corruption or other investigations and/or for reporting to such authorities or agencies any breach or potential breach of applicable laws;
- j) Personal Data may be transmitted to recipients located in countries outside the European Economic Area. Such countries include the United States and other countries whose laws protecting personal data may not be equivalent to those in the European Economic Area. In such cases, Teva shall take reasonable measures to ensure the adequate processing of Personal Data;
- k) All Personal Data is provided voluntarily and the Respondent is aware that without the obtaining of the necessary consents (which may be revoked at any time by contacting Teva as set out in paragraph 3 above), the Personal Data will not be processed, however the Respondent may not be able to enter into or continue a business relationship with Teva (as the case may be); and
- l) Information that is not Personal Data is collected, processed, transferred or otherwise used in the same way Personal Data is collected, processed, transferred or otherwise used as described in this document and any disclosure of such information shall not be a breach of confidentiality towards the Respondent or a Related Party. If a potential issue with the Respondent is identified by Teva, Teva may require Respondent to provide additional information or documents that it deems necessary.
